Key Note Speaker: Bernard Kleina, Executive Director, Hope Fair Housing Center

Bernard Kleina has been a fair housing activist since the Chicago Freedom Movement of 1965. Mr. Kleina brings with him a vast knowledge of and insight into the history of the fair housing movement in the United States.

On Display will be Mr. Kleina's rarely seen color photographs document the peaceful demonstrations of the 1965-66 Freedom Movement and the call for open housing. The exhibit celebrates the efforts of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and other civil rights leaders and includes images of Dr. King; Coretta Scott-King; the Rev. Jesse Jackson; former Atlanta Mayor and UN Ambassador, Andrew Young; comedian activist, Dick Gregory; gospel singer, Mahalia Jackson; former Southern Christian Leadership Council President, the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, as well as thousands of peaceful demonstrators involved in these historic rallies and marches.
